INSTRUCTOR / MONIKA LIN

Monika Lin was born in Manhattan, NY in 1968. She spent her early years in New Jersey before moving with her parents and brothers to the San Francisco Bay Area. In 1986 she accepted a scholarship to the College of Creative Studies at the University of California Santa Barbara. After college in Southern California, she moved to San Francisco where she lived and worked for 12 years as an artist, curator, children's educator and where learned to cook. She now lives in Shanghai with her husband and daughter where she teaches art to students of all ages. Her work is exhibited across the United States and Europe (in galleries, art centers and museums), and recently at Art Beijing, the Bridge Art Fair in London, Scope Miami, and the Arizona State University Art Museum.
